Re: Coakley Landfill CERCLA Site

Dear Ms. Catri:

This letter confirms our telephone conversation of April 17, 1991, when I told you that, on April 16, 1991, Browning-Ferris Industries of New Hampshire, Inc. ("BFINH") found 12 boxes of documents related to the activities of Great Bay Disposal Services, Inc. These boxes were stored in the attic at BFINH's District office and were not found in previous searches there.

I did not have time to examine the contents of boxes except in a cursory manner. They appear to contain customer files, billing records and miscellaneous correspondence. The boxes will be shipped to me today. As soon as I receive them, I will send you a list of the files. We then will begin indexing their contents.

I agreed to provide you a copy of the index by May 1, 1991, or to let you know in advance if I cannot meet that date. After you review the index, you will let me know which documents related to the Coakley Site EPA wishes to receive copies.

Sincerely,

Robert L. Gulley
